Ulloodward & Lothrop,

Friday is Remnant Day.

able, as they detract from the freshness and effectiveness of the stocks. It's good storekeeping for us to get rid of them. Quickest and only way to get rid of them is to put such prices on them as will make it certain that they'll sell in short order.

Remnants have gathered thickly this week, hence we have made the prices lower even than usual-some are a half off, some more, a few not so much.

Dress Goods offer unusual attractions, both in wool and cotton fabrics. Many suitable lengths for a traveling dress, a house dress, a separate skirt, a shirt waist, a child's frock.

Everything is marked to sell quickly.

Attention is called to several larger lots of goods, which are more than usually interesting from a price ings-Personals.

Dr. and Mrs. Gallaudet gave a charming welcome yesterday afternoon to several Kendall Green. The hall, as well as all the rooms, were decked with dogwood and fruit blossems. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. David Jayne Hill and Mrs. John W. Foster. Mrs. Denison Gallaudet and Mrs. John B. Wight presided at the refreshment table. Miss Marion Gallaudet and Miss Edith Sanger, Mrs. Fay and Miss Hopkins were also actively engaged in the hospitality. Both official and resident soclety were represented in the throngs of

The engagement of Miss MacAllister, niece of the late Ward MacAllister of New York, and Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, superin-York, and Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, superintendent of the coast and geodetic survey, is the latest pleasant topic among their friends. Miss MacAllister is the sister of Mrs. Newlands and has spent the past winter with her. Representative and Mrs. Newlands are now at their Chevy Chase home, where the latter has inviteded her friends for Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and where the wedding will take place at an early date. Dr. Pritchett will take his bride to the far northwest on their bridal trip and probably extend the journey to Cape Nome. As Dr. Pritchett has lately accepted the presidency of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology the future residence of the couple will be in Boston.

The Misses Newlands are going abroad The Misses Newlands are going abroad shortly and will be joined by Mrs. New-lands within a couple of months.

The engagement was announced in Baltimore yesterday of Miss Virginia Grace Norris of Fauquier county, Va., to Dr. Eugene Lyman Le Merle of this city. Miss Norris is now visiting Mrs. F. W. Levering, in Baltimore. Miss Norris is the daughter of the late H. De Butts Norris of Fauquier county, Va., who was a noted civil engineer, and who built railroads in Central and South America and in Mexico. Mr. A. J. Norris, a civil engineer of Washington, D. C., is her brother. On Miss Norris' mother's side, the greatgrandfather was the first minister sent by Spain to the United States. His name was Don Manuel Toledano.

CHANGE ORDERED.

Class of Preferred Securities Created by Washington Traction Company.

A change has been made in the character of the securities of the Washington Traction and Electric Company. A class of preferred stock has been created through the action of the holders of the $12,000,000 of stock issued by the company in returning to the treasury of the company $6,000,-000 of that stock. This has again been issued as preferred stock, making the other $6,000,000 common stock. Upon this issue of preferred stock a loan of $3,000,000 has been negotiated.

This outcome of the rearrangement of the classes of the securities of the company was based upon a careful and thorough examination into the affairs of the company amination into the affairs of the company made recently by the New York financiers who loaned the money. The opinion reached was that the business of the company is promising and the prospects for the future highly, encouraging. It is the intention to use the money thus secured in making any extensions of the present system that may be required and in perfecting the equipment.

How I miss thee, dearest wife,
No one e'er can tell;
Faithful, patient, loving, true,
Thou hast gone to heaven to dwell.

Our mamma is sleeping.
So free from all pain.
O wake not her sweet spirit
To suffer again.
She slumbers so soundly,
O let her cleep on;
Her sickness is ended
And troubles all gone.
O think how she suffered
And moaned with the pain
In the long night hours;
We soothed her in vain.
Till God in His mercy
Sent down from above
An angel to whisper
A message of love.
May she rest in peace
